OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

October 29, 1976

Dear Members of Our Lady of Mount Carmel Parish:

It is a great joy to congratulate Our Lady of Mount Carmel Parish on the Golden Jubilee of its dedication.

Much has been accomplished in the fifty years of the parish history; fifty years of witnessing to the faith of the Italian people in Cleveland; fifty years of growth with and in the Italian community of this city. This is also a moment of opportunity, a moment to look to the future and determine how the pattern of individual and parish life can be made ever stronger and effective.

May the accomplishments in which you rejoice today be both the sign and the cause of even greater accomplishment in the future.

With my blessing, I am

Sincerely in Christ,

+James A. Hickey

Rev. P. Marino FRASCATI, O. de M.
Parroco di N. S. del Carmine
6928 Detroit Ave
(U. S. A.) CLEVELAND, OHIO

Carissimo P. Marino, l'iniziativa di ricordare i cinquanta anni dell'attività dei Religiosi Mercedari tra la popolazione che oggi costituisce la fiorente e fervente parrocchia di Nostra Signora del Carmine in Cleveland, è stata quanto mai opportuna e degna di plauso. E ciò non per ricercare una vana compiacenza umana, ma per elevare a Dio un inno di ringraziamento e per dare nuovo impulso all'opera apostolica a beneficio delle anime.

E' doveroso in questa circostanza ricordare i pionieri che hanno lavorato in questa parte del gregge di Cristo.

Innanzi tutto il compianto P. Sante Gattuso che, nella sua qualità di Parroco di S. Rocco, si interessò fin dal 1924 di quel gruppo di circa 200 famiglie italiane appartenenti alla sua parrocchia e dislocate in cotesta zona. Dopo un'azione apostolica abbastanza proficua, ma saltuaria, finalmente nel 1926, con l'affitto di un locale stabile, potè dare inizio, ogni domenica, alla celebrazione della Santa Messa e ad un'assistenza più assidua a quella popolazione. Giustamente quindi a quell'anno si fa ascendere la fondazione della Chiesa della Madonna del Carmine, dove egli, con grandi sacrifici, promosse un'intensa attività religiosa per aiutare i fedeli nella pratica della vita cristiana.

E' da menzionare poi lo stimato P. Vincenzo Caruso il quale, fin dal 1929, in un primo momento come cooperatore del P. Gattuso e poi come diretto responsabile della Chiesa, con encomiabile zelo, per oltre 40 anni, ha svolto una grande opera di bene per le anime di cotesta parrocchia.

In cinquanta anni di vita quanti benefici ricevuti dal Signore, quanto bene operato con il suo aiuto, quanti progressi fatti. Tutto ciò è testimoniato in modo eloquente dalle realizzazioni oggi esistenti(erezione della parrocchia, nuova Chiesa, scuola, casa parrocchiale e locali annessi, ecc.) che ricordano sia l'impegno di tutti i religiosi che hanno lavorato e lavorano tra questa porzione del popolo di Dio nella Chiesa di Cristo, sia la generosa rispondenza e la fattiva cooperazione di tutti i parrocchiani che le hanno rese possibili. La costruzione poi in atto nell'ambito parrocchiale, del complesso denominato "Villa Mercede", opera sociale condivisa e voluta da cotesta comunità parrocchiale, dimostra come l'ideale mercedario di carità e di promozione umana, trovi sempre nuove forme di andare incontro ai fratelli con quello spirito che è pronto a sacrificare anche la propria vita.

Per questo esprimo a te e alla tua comunità religiosa e parrocchiale il mio più vivo compiacimento. E mentre mi rallegro per questa celebrazione giubilare e insieme a voi ringrazio il Signore, invoco la protezione della SS. Vergine vostra Patrona, affinchè per suo mezzo e in suo nome, venga sempre meglio conosciuto ed amato il suo Divin Figlio e nostro Salvatore Gesù Cristo, nel quale soltanto gli uomini possono trovare la vita e l'unità dei veri figli di Dio, e auspico sempre maggiori frutti di bene a gloria di Dio e per la salvezza delle anime.

Di cuore benedico i religiosi mercedari della comunità di Monte Carmelo e i fedeli affidati alle loro cure pastorali, con l'augurio di sapervi sempre ferventi di zelo e ardenti di carità cristiana e mercedaria.

Fraternamente saluto tutti nel Signore.

Dear Parishioners:

On this fiftieth anniversary of our exsistence as the People of God and our great Country in the Detroit and West 65th St. Area, we pause to consider what did actually happened to us and the reason for its happening.

The history of these fifty years of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Church (West), is well known to us. From nothing, fifty years ago, we have now a $2.8 million worth of property, well used, well functioning. A real miracle when we consider that we have never been a parish of wealth, we have never been the recepients of large gifts. . . Everything we have, came unto us slowly, painfully as the result of many sacrifices, made by people with a vision strenghthened and encouraged by hundreds of years of experience.

This beautiful Country of ours and its providencial people have been the setting for a social and spiritual development and implementation of many dreams: a job, a family, a home, a school, social halls, a gym, a church.

The source of any dream, the mover for its accomplishment, is above all spiritual. The actualization of a dream is a sign of an internal reason. For our people this reason has been the family, source of strenghth, joy in the sacrifice. Their Faith joined them together, urged them to transmit those values that are natural and Christian to their children of perpetuate them down to many generations to come.

Our predecessors have done very well. Fifty years of marvelous, various experiences have imprinted in the minds of those who are still with us and in the minds of their children thousands of unwritten pages of samples and instances, of stories and memories.

The anniversary is not a closing of a book. The story continues. The inheritance has been transmitted to the new generations. They will not have a lesser vision than the generation past, because they share the same Faith of their fathers, in the Lord Jesus, who taught us to look to the beatific vision of God, the Father, where everything is infinite, perfect and beautiful and to pattern our life after it.

And there is also that "cloud" seen by the Prophet of the Old Testament; the Lady who is the Mother of Jesus, the "Castellana" (the town-Lady) of our people, whose name and love have been imprinted in the heart of every parishioner. Mary, Our Lady of Mt. Carmel, guides and protests us as She, true Mother, guided and protected the people of the past, earth and to come to Jesus in heaven.

May the Lord bless us all and Our Lady may watch over us always.

Sincerely,

Fr. Marino Frascati

A BRIEF HISTORY OF OUR PARISH

The history of Our Lady of Mount Carmel (West) was created with a humble beginning and a strong perserverance through God's infallible Providence and Our Most Holy Mother's intervention.

A letter from His Excellency, the late Archbishop Joseph Schrembs, dated January 26, 1924, brought two Mercedarians to Cleveland from Youngstown, Ohio. The letter of Archbishop Schrembs assigned the Order to Our Lady of Mercy to the present sight of the Parish complex.

The Order began to minister to the needs of the Italian people on Sunday, February 3rd, 1924 on West 69th Street. Fr. S. Gattuso, O.de M., presented himself as their new Pastor. It was a cold reception, but it was to be expected as those people had a rather unpleasant experience before that time. Bishop Farrelly some years before had appointed a Priest to study the religious situation of the Italians who were moving around Fulton Road in an ever larger number from Central Avenue, Orange Avenue, Hill Street, Scovill Avenue, etc. The group of Italians at Fulton Road wanted the church in their section; the others centered around West 65th to West 69th wanted it in theirs. As a result, the Bishop felt he could not reach a solution. So, with this first meeting, a group of men formed what was going to later be called the Mission of Our Lady of Mount Carmel.

This was the first encounter with the people of the Mount Carmel area. Little by little people began to seek the administration of the Holy Sacraments from St. Rocco's because of the Italian Clergy. In June of 1924, Fr. Gattuso decided to begin cathechetical instruction among the children and prepared them for the reception of First Holy Communion. The first class received communion at the little Chapel of St. Rocco on the last Sunday of September.

In July, 1924, on the occasion of the Annual Celebration of Our Lady of Mount Carmel, Fr. Gattuso offered his first Mass for the people of this locality at the Romanian Church of St. Helena, after which our traditional procession took place with the Statue of Our Blessed Lady. The statue is still to this day a historical jewel at the Parish House on Detroit Avenue.

During this first year a close relationship developed between Fr. Gattuso and the people of the community. The people began to welcome visits from him to their homes. The time came to hold the Annual Celebration of Our Lady of Mount Carmel, a new and bigger Statue of the Blessed Mother was purchased, and today sits above the main altar in the church. However, when the celebration was over there was no place to locate the statue, but it found a room in the Fasino Home on West 69th Street where the ladies of the immediate area started to gather every evening to recite the Rosary and to sing to Her beautiful songs written by Saint Alphonse: "Mira il tuo popolo", "O bella mia speranza", etc. On the strong faith of those venerable pioneers with their humble and fervent prayers rested the foundation of the Parish plant of today, a true miracle of faith and love to Jesus and Mary. Masses started to be celebrated in the little room which transformed into a small chapel, but on some week days whenever it would be requested by the people who frequented this chapel.

The humble beginning
1924 - 1926

By Palm Sunday of 1926, these people had converted an old saloon into a larger Chapel and started to use it for Worship. From that day on the Mass was said regularly every Sunday and confessions were heard every Saturday. Communion classes were held in that little Chapel for the first time in the territory of what started to be officially called Our Lady of Mount Carmel Mission. The Sodality of the Sacred Heart for married women, that of Our Lady of Mercy for young ladies and that of St. Agnes for girls were established in quick succession and showed to be a great help in promoting the practice of our faith in the families. Those were real pioneer days! The Sunday collections were barely enought to pay the monthly rent, electric and light bills for the Chapel. Devotion and fervor increased among the small congregation. It was an unbelievably difficult beginning, but at least they now had their little Chapel. Now the Kingdom of Christ was alive, not only in a small Chapel but most important, in the hearts of his people.

The first little public chapel
1926 - 1933

Things went along the same way for some years. Mass on Sunday, Confessions on Saturdays, evening Devotions frequently held, particularly the novenas in honor of the Sacred Heart, one in honor of the Blessed Mother in July, etc. Holy Communion classes were held regularly in the spring. The first group of confirmandi from the Mission was in the year 1926. More and more people found their way towards what has been the Mother Parish, St. Rocco, for their spiritual and moral needs.

By this time Fr. Vincent Caruso, who had been ordained Priest in the month of September, 1927, assisted in our work of growth around the middle of 1929. Fr. Caruso occasionally offered Mass at the Chapel on West 69th Street, and was mastering the English language to the extent that he was able to assume more of the responsibilities of the Mission.

During 1930 in the midst of the depression, collections were meager. In the month of December, 1932, a purchase was made of a double family house at 7104 Detroit Avenue, which was carefully changed into a Chapel. Fr. Caruso and Fr. Gattuso discussed possibilities, and Fr. Gattuso visited Bishop Schrembs who gladly gave his permission. By the end of the year the contract was signed.

In the month of January of the work of changing the house into a Chapel was started. Tuesday, before Ash Wednesday, Bishop James A. McFadden, then Auxiliary Bishop of the Diocese, came to bless the new Chapel. In comparison to the former Chapel in the old saloon at West 69th Street, the new Chapel looked like a basilica. Things started to look better than ever in spite of the depression. The spiritual life of the people showed more and more. The men's Sodality was organized and then the Conference of Saint Vincent DePaul came into existence.

The larger chapel on Detroit
1933 - 1949

More Masses had to be added to the Sunday services. People were coming to church in ever larger numbers. To many people, that little Chapel will always be a source of sweet memories: the little Church which so many loved and come to pray. One thing that started to give some financial help was the Annual Celebration in Honor of Our Lady of Mount Carmel.

During Lent of 1939, one Sunday evening at the closing of a Mission, with the approval of Bishop Schrembs, Fr. Gattuso was able to announce that the piece of land located between West 69th and West 70th had been purchased for future expansion of the Mission. It is impossible to describe the enthusiasm everyone felt on that occasion because a dream was at last to be a reality.

The faithful were successful in paying the debt borrowed for the purchase of the land within five years. Many people were asking why a new Church wasn't built. The reality was that no bank, after the crash of 1932, wanted to make any loan except where it had a substantial collateral of at least forty-five per cent in cash. The number of families was considered too small; the Sunday collections too meager to meet payments on the loan. The financial situation in America at that time prohibited this small but vibrant community from beginning, therefore, they had to wait, pray and save for the new Church building.

In 1948 the financial status of the community was strengthened. The Celebration of Our Lady's "Feast" started to be so successful and with special donations for the building fund, plans were being drawn for the shcool. His Excellency, our Beloved Archbishop Hoban, approved those plans and in the month of March, 1949, ground was broken for the new building which was going to be erected without borrowing a cent from the bank. They dedicated half of the school building for a Church and opened the school in the month of September of 1949. There was a two fold joy, the first Mass was offered in the new Church and they were in condition to offer the new building without a penny of debt. The "Feast" that year was more successful than ever, bringing in the money to help complete the work which was still required. In fact, the old Chapel on Detroit Avenue had to be remodeled as residence for the Sisters who were going to teach in the new school. That work too was done in 1949, and the Sisters of the Most Holy Trinity moved into their house by the middle of October.

Our financial status gained prestige and again without making any loan, in 1951 the Parish House was erected at the present site. After building the school and the Parish House, a loan was needed for the construction of the Church. The R. G. Mills & Company of St. Louis, Missouri, was very prompt to make the loan. Plans were prepared and in the middle of March, 1952, putting everything in the hands of God. With the utmost confidence in the generosity of the people of the Parish, ground was broken and construction work started. It was a year of fervent work, of anxieties and at the same time confidence in God, and as a result the structure shaped beautifully and majestically on Detroit Avenue. The enthusiasm of the the people of the Parish was wonderful, the generosity of the great majority was marvelous and many, many people accompanied by their fervent prayers and hard work, brought about the happy and blessed day, April 19, 1951.

His Excellency, Archbishop Edward F. Hoban, came to dedicate the new Church and rejoice with all his children. The Statue of Our Lady of Mount Carmel was carried from the temporary Chapel in the school building to the new Church and enthroned in the niche in the Sanctuary. Since that time our Blessed Mother has vigilantly watched over all who kneel at her feet praying in praise of God.

After the dedication of the Church on April 19th, 1953, the Parishioners felt the need for a kindergarden, a library and a new convent to house the Sisters dedicated to teaching our children. A fund raising campaign was started on March 10th, 1957, the first Sunday of Lent. On the "Feast" of Christ the King, October 24th, 1957, the ceremony of ground breaking took place at 3:00 P.M. The debt on the church at the time of the campaign was $40,000.00 The estimated cost of the kindergarden, library and convent was $125,000.00 The convent was built and on April 18, 1959, Bishop John J. Krol (now Cardinal of Philidelphia, Pa.) blessed it. With a growing school and more children in the parish, and athletic program became a necessity, but there was no place for various teams to practice, or hold any sporting events. A wish for a gymnasium put the people of Mt. Carmel on the go again. A successful campaign for the hall/gymnasium began after the breaking of the ground, June 16th, 1963. The new hall/gym was named after the most Beloved Pope John XXIII who died only a few days before the breaking of the ground. The gymnasium was blessed on May 10, 1964 by Bishop Elwell at 11:00 and followed by a Mass at 11:30 in the gym. The ailing Archbishop Edward F. Hoban visited Pope John XXIII Hall in the afternoon. He was very happy to see this beautiful building dedicated to the Beloved Pope John XXIII, a "first" in the Diocese and maybe at that time, throughout the whole world.

Most Rev Clarence G Issenmann STD

On November 10th, 1966, the Most Rev. Clarence G. Issenmann, Bishop of Cleveland gave the Parish of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel (W), the boundaries and still the right to continuing to exist as a nationality parish. The decree reads: "In order to provide for the greater convenience of many of the faithful in fulfilling their religious obligations, and having sought the advice and obtained the approval of the Dioceasan Consultors and the pastors of the interested parishes, we have decided to assign territorial boundaries to the Parish of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel (West) in Cleveland; at the same time, however, the parish continues to exist as a nationality parish for the faithful of Italian extraction who live within its original boundaries and who have the canonical right to belong there."

The new stained glass windows were installed in the Church. The new stations of the Cross, Della Robbia School, have replaced the old ones.

In August, 1973, the Parish bought the property north of Pope John XXIII Hall with the hope of, not expanding its buildings, but of giving a place to our elderly people who do not want to go out of the neighborhood and building new homes for the young couples who are treasuring the traditions and the spirit of the Parish. This hopefully will start a new awakening in our neighborhood, a physical renewal that will not only keep those who are here, here to stay, but it will invite others to come back.

What the parishioners have accomplished with their meager resources is real monument to their faith and dedication: a Church, two halls, a gym, a convent, the school, the Rectory, and about six acres of property ready to bloom into a new section of modern buildings that hopefully will be the beginning of new area for the neighborhood. It is an ideal spot to live in, with the lake as a back drop of natural beauty. They are very interested in their neighborhood, and they participate in programs intended for its upkeep and improvement.

The Church is part of The Westside Ecumenical Ministry and the Detroit Shoreway Community Development Organization, and it forms the strongest ethnic unit in the near West Side. The religious Priests and Brothers of the Order of Our Lady of Mercy have been serving the people since 1924. The Church was a Mission of St. Rocco's Church at 3205 Fulton Road, and the Pastor of St. Rocco's was the Pastor of the Mission also, although Fr. Caruso, O. de M., Assistant Pastor, spent all his 42 years working exclusively for the Mission. In 1966 the Parish of Our Lady of Mount Carmel was given the boundaries, so it remained nationality and became a territorial Parish. Fr. Caruso remained as Pastor. In November, 1970, Fr. Caruso was appointed Delegate Provincial for the Religious of Our Lady of Mercy and Superior of the Theological House of the same Order in LeRoy, New York. Fr. Marino Frascati, O. de M., succeeded him as Pastor of Our Lady of Mount Carmel.
